※ Document reception: Document reception desk on the first basement floor of Building 900 (the same floor as the playground). Registered mail can be received by Thursday within the registration period.

■ Regarding Waitlist Number

A. How to Check

- MySNU portal > Log-in > Academic Affairs > Student Residence Halls > Gwanak Residence Halls > Application State - 'Search the Selection status'
- Waitlist '0' means that room type was not applied for

B. Expiration Date for Waitlist Number: Valid for 1st semester of 2021 (Until end of May 2021)

- For residency for fall semester 2021, the applicant must go through the 'Fall semester residency application (early July)' procedure again.

■ Note

A. For those applied for both room types

- For those who applied for both types of rooms (both single and double), you may get both waiting numbers each. However, residents must move-in to the room announced first, and cannot choose between the two.

B. Wait-listed applicants may not choose room options (roommates, life patterns, etc.)

C. Prepare required documents according to "2021 Guidelines for Accepted Residents (Selected Applicants)"
